HONGKONG, JULY 12th, 1396.

THE Singaporeans are more fortunate than the residents of Hongkong in respect of the fortifications, inasmuch as they have definite information afforded them as to what is being done. The works there are not only being paid for by the Colony, but are being carried out under the direction of the Colonial Engineer, Major McCallum, who is seconded officer of the Corns of Royal Esgineers. Major McCattom, in virtue of his position as Colonial Engiager, is a member of the Lygislative Council, and at the last meeting of that halv, by command of His Excellency the Governor, he made a statement over a column in length, with reference to the defences. The statement does not deal merely in generalities, but gives what are apparently full details as to the progress of Same of Major McCallum's Police Force. A reward of $500 had been offered remarks are of interest to us here, as he anpears in some sort as an apologist for the War Office. The gallant officer, referring to the original plant sava: —" By it we found that whilst the contemplated works would secure the New Harbour, the Roadstead and the Town were to be practically undefended. Considering that we were so chearfully defraving the cost of the works, it was acarcely to be expected that the Colony would accept this arrangement without protest, which was accordingly made through the proper chan-. The Commerce is at present being consulted as to a proposal for placing obstructions at the to Jenchuan by Capt. CANTON. [FROM A CORRESPONDENT.]

There is not much news of interest to chronicle here. Robbery has of late been very rampant in the neighbouring districts, and lawlessnoss seems to provail in most parts of the province. This is doubtless due to the gradual disbandment of the men collisted during the Franco-Chinese hostilities. The following is the finding of the Court :--The Rocket was a steam vessel plying as a tuz Shanghai waters, of 17 tons registered tonauge, official No. 62,938 built at South Shields in 1869, and belonging to the Port of Shanghai. It appears from the evidence given before this Court and from the depositions taken before H.B.M.'s Vice-Consul on the 6th May, 1886, which have been read before this Court, that on and after spending after days in Houghoug will of the Resident, as I of twelve the 3rd day of May, 1887, the Resident was surployed by the master of the steam's Glenewites, from Chamber, an excursion to some of the docks, of London No. 76,733, to assist in towing the latter vessel off the Woosang Inner Bar, where she was aground. The Court having regard to the circumstances above stated, finds as follows:-That the casualty was one of an unusual kind which the master of the Rocket could hardly have foreseen, and that the time which elapsed between the Rockel's first beginning to heel over and her sinking was so short that those on board of her could not do anything to prevent the

That the hawser appears to have been let go on board the Gleneagles as quickly as possible after they were hailed to do so, but the tug would soom to have already taken in so much water that it was too late, the strength of the tide kesping her from righting herself. That the Court therefore sees no ground for

CONGRESS OF CRAMBERS OF COM-

The London Chamber of Commerce has con vened for July a commercial congress of great importance. The British Empire is almost the largest in area, and is very much the largest in which will meet at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition on the 6th and 7th of July next, will be singularly and influentially representative of its varied climatic and commercial composition The great majority of the Chambers of the United Kingdom are taking part in this meeting. but its striking and unprecedented feature is the powerful accession of Colonial Chambers of Commerce. The geographical completeness of colonial representation can be best seen from the following list of participating Chambers :-

Australasia.—The Chamber of Manufacturers f Adelaide, and the Chambers of Commerce of Adelaide, Sydney. Melbourne, Christchurch Dunedin, Napier, Invercergill, Launceston, Nelson, Auckland, and Wellington. Canada.—The Boards of Trade of Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, and Hamilton. China.—The Chamber of Commerce of Hongkong. India.—The Chambers of Commerce of Bombay, Bengal (Calcutta), Colombe (Ceylon), and Madras. Indo-China.-The Chambers of Commerce of Rangoon (British Burmah) and Singapore. South Africa.-The -The Royal Agricultural and Commercial Society, British Guiana. West Indies.—The Chambers of Commence of Barbados, Jamaica, and Trinidad. British Chambers in Foreign Countries.-The British Chamber of Commerce in

The Congress is meeting ostensibly to discuss ome leading topics of Imperial interest, but the ctrief aspiration which actuated the London Chamber in convenient this conference of English commercial men from all parts of the world was the hope that means might be found to make its meetings periodical. Federation, either commercial or political, has been recognized by the London Chamber as the great factor in the industrial future of the British Empire, and this great question of the Federation of the Empire will be advanced a stage.

The questions to be discussed by this Congress have been selected from a considerable number suggested by each Chamber, and the final choice has been made by a committee of crganization of the following seven topics as those most generally interesting : -

1st. Emigration.—Considered more especially from the point of view of diverting the stream of emigrants to British colonies rather than to countries where the consumption of Anglo-Colonial produce is interfered with by fiscal arrangements. Opener, Mr. J. G. Colmer, secretary to Canadian High Commissioner. 2d. Postal and Telegraphic Reform:—Consideration of the possibility of an/Angle-Colonial penny Postage Union, extension of the telegraph system, reduction of rates, neutralization of cables, &c. Opener, Mr. J. F. Hutton, M.P. 3rd. Imperial Federation.—Consideration of how best to bring about the adoption of a practical working scheme for the federation of the British Empire 4th. Codification and Assimilation of the Commercial Law of the British Empire.—Considered more particularly from the point of view of assimilating the commercial law and usages of the Empire. Opener, Professor Legue Levi. 5th. State Guarantee of War Ricks.-As affecting the security of Angle-Colonial trade and of yeasels and oneghos under the British flag in hims of war. Opener, Mr. G. Baden Powell, C. M.G., M.P.

6th. The Silver Question.

7th. The Bills of Lading Reform. Opener, Mr. J. Macandrew.

The discussion will be facilitated and the points of each question summarized by means of opening papers, which will be prepared by gentlemen who have made that question their special study. The usual relief from the monotony of economic and business discussion will be provided for in the shape of a dinner, a consecersinn, a reception by the President of the Lonand visits to some large industrial establishments. The social entertainments will include hers of Commerce of the United Kingdom, whose delegates will hold their summer meeting in the conference room of the exhibition on the inv immediately following the Congress of the Charbers of the Empire. The commercial lelegates of the colonies will thus have an opportunity of meeting a number of British trade representatives. The meeting will be thus as complete as it could be desired to make it, and the promoters of the scheme hope that its effect on the development of the friendly and commercial relations between the mother ocuntry and the colonies will be considerable and lasting.

CANADA'S BUDGET. OTTAWA, Ont., 11th June. The official returns for eleven months of the current fiscal year show that while the revenue of the Dominion has not increased, the expanditures have been greater by $4,297,347 than in the same months of 1884-85. At the end of May, 1885, there was a surplus of $2,000,000. At the end of May, 1886, the deficit is over $2,000,000. The expenditures for the present month of June will exceed $5,000,000, while the revenue will not be more than sufficient to meet the deficit of the last eleven months. So that the total deficit for the current year cannot be less than $5,000,000, PARNELL'S YERSION OF THE INTERVIEW

WITH THE EARL OF CARNARVON. LONDON, 11th June. Mr. Parnell has requested the publication of the following :-

I positively deny that I sought an interview with the Earl of Carnarvon. I also differ with the Earl as to the two conditions upon which he alleges was based the interview, namely, that he i was acting entirely on his own responsibility and that he declined to hear or say one word to the detriment of the union. The Earl of Carnaryon did not lay down the conditions previously. admit that there was foundation for the third condition mentioned—that is, he hoped it was understood that he was not engaged in making any treaty or bargain. The Earl of Carnarvon said he sought the interview to ask my views as to a constitution for Ireland; but it was soon obvious that he wished to give his own views. Replying to any inquiry in regard to the proposal to establish a central legislature founded upon country boards. I said that I did not think Ireland could accept that as a settlement; that the central body ought to be a Parliament in name and in fact, having the power to deal with the local Government of counties. The Earl of Carnaryon stated, that this was his own view, adding greatly to the weight of Irish opinions. He also suggested the basing of Parliament at Dublin upon a colonial model. His opinions upon this point struck me as being the result of much thought and study. I remarked that the protection of certain Irish industries from English and foreign competition would be absolutely necessary. The Earl replied:-" entirely agree with you, but what a row there will be in England." I then loft, believing that we were in complete accord upon the main out-lines for plans for the settlement of the question of the Government of Ireland. I have reason to believe that the Earl impressed his views upon the Cabinet and that many of his colleagues shared his views; also that the Earl resigned the Lord Lieutenantcy of Ireland because we did not give the Conservatives a majority at the

A London cablegram says:-The success of Daly's company at the Strand Theatre has no precedent in London theatrical annals. Mr. Daly will have none but the pleasantest recollections to take back to America with him at the end of the season. Unless some specially delightful memory is in store, he can have no pleasanter recollection than that of the little supper in the famous Beef-room of the Lyceum Theatre, given STATION. to him and some members of his company by Mr. Irving on Thursday night. The press notices. of "A Night Off" have been uniformly enlogistic, although in every case the players were more praised than the piece. Truth says:—"Why, with so much native talent, the Americans should be so eager to get hold of English setors and actresses, I do not understand, unless it be from a deprayed taste for exotics."

New York, 7th June. The Herald's Constantinople special of June 6th says: - Great hopes are entertained, both here and at Athens, that the advent of Tricoupis to power will lead to a quasi alliance between Greece and Turkey. According to present in Manila tentions, the garrison at Erzeroum and also the frontier posts are to be strengthened by the dis-patch of that large portion of troops which are no longer required on the Greek frontier.

Sr. Louis, 9th June.
